Have you heard about history of Korea?

Korea has thousand years of history and Korea is Nation State.

If you are an international tourist, you might know Seoul City is one of the unique cities has hundreds years history footprints. You will see high-tech right next to thousand-year-old tradition. The palace is one of the popular historical places. Chosun Empire has ended in 1910 while Seoul has been the capital of the Jason dynasty for the past 500 years.

What is first thought of the word "Palace"? Place for kings and noble families? It is true, but only the part of it. You will see the zone where kings and families stayed with 2000 people ruled the whole country. There is only parts of palaces remain which makes many people find they are only for the king and family. The palace was the space for discussing how to rule the country. The palace was like a big company runs a huge organization, a nation where 2000 people are working together inside. Most people now understand the palace only for the king and family after modern city development.

Bukchon Hanok Village, preserved Hanok style homes where the lords lived 500 years ago. Healing Time in Seoul N-Seoul Tower, a landmark of Seoul, famous for its panoramic view of Seoul, promises of eternal love with the lock of love. The northern part of Seoul is famous for its towns (villages), where people lived since ancient times because it is around the royal palace. Among them, Bukchon Hanok Village is attracting attention as a sightseeing destination that Koreans want to visit. As you walk through the hanok in Bukchon, you can see the life of the people in Korea.

Koreans call Chunggyecheon as an oasis in the city central that is awakened from a long sleep. Among the dense tall buildings' line-up, one ray of water is flowing through the central. Chunggyecheon has become a resting and picnic place for office workers at their lunch time and weekends. This place is chosen as the most beautiful '100 roads' in Korea, it is really good for taking a stroll during a warm sun shining day.

Seoul Tower is also famous as a place for various dramas! When you look at Seoul from the top of Mt. Namsan, you will be immersed in the charm of Seoul. Especially when the weather is clear if you are lucky you can see North Korea from Seoul Tower. Looking out at the panoramic view of Seoul from the Seoul Tower, promising an eternal love setting it through a lock of love.

For the final finale for this tour is scheduled to end at N Seoul Tower, by the time you reach the top of the namsan mt.

The N SEOUL TOWER, a complex culture space in Seoul, is where the clouds seem to meet with Namsan Mountain. It shows visitors the harmony of Namsan's nature, the 21st century state of the art, resting with leisure, and various cultures.

The N SEOUL TOWER, which is a symbol of Seoul now, was established at the highest point to glance at the most beautiful images of Seoul. It is also Korea's first general radio wave tower from 1969, delivering TV and radio broadcasting in the metropolitan area.

Not only does the N SEOUL TOWER have transmission antennas of KBS, MBC, SBS TV and FM but PBC, TBS, CBS, BBS FM transmission antennas are also installed. 48% of the national audio population watches broadcasting through this transmission tower.

Since the N SEOUL TOWER was opened to the general public in 1980, it has become a resting place for the citizens of Seoul as well as a touristic attraction for foreigners with the living nature of Namsan.

With the latest LED technology lighting which constantly changes colors and patterns, it has become a 'light art' providing various media art together with an unusual cultural art experience. As a complex cultural space representing Seoul, the newly born N SEOUL TOWER is a proud landmark of Seoul.
